Newly viral Pop Rock band Poe the Passenger is made up of four best friends. On TikTok, their engagement is through the roof (4.5m+ video views, 700k+ likes, 100k+ shares). Likewise, their Spotify audience has grown over 300% in a matter of months bringing them to 214k monthly listeners. They are inspired by literary themes and write through the perspective of a character, "Poe," navigating the triumphs and tribulations of life. Poe the Passenger creates family from their fans by building a supportive community around them and tackling issues together such as struggles with mental health, maneuvering modern society, and relationships. Their live show is infectious and raw, and they have completed a full tour of the western US.
